

LEVARHT

BEEF TOMATOES

ORIGIN

Our beef tomatoes have a robust structure and a fresh flavour. With a diameter of between 68 and 102 millimetres, it is the largest tomato in our range. Our beef tomatoes are grown by Van Nature grower Moerman in Maasbree.

The beef tomato is ideally suited for use in hot dishes, but its sturdy, fleshy pulp means it is also very good for stuffing. We offer various packaging options for beef tomatoes.
