

LEVARHT

GALIA MELON

ORIGIN

HONDURAS

The Agrolibano farms are located in the southern region of Honduras. Agrolibano transports containers through the Honduran territory, from the south to the north. The proper weather conditions allowed them to develop healthy plantations. The partnership between Agrolibano and Levarht started in 2009.

BRAZIL

In Brazil we collaborate with Mata Fresca and Agricola Famosa in the cultural territory Barauna. They produce for Levarht since 2005, under accompaniment of our own quality control. There is also the possibility of using customized packing.
